GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

Probably on no race track in America was there ever before so great an array of jockey talent than at present at the Oakland track. The list embraces such boys as Bullman, Spencer, O'Connor, Burns, Redfern, Mounce, Buchanan, Eddie Jones, L. Jackson, Ranch, Birkenruth, J. Woods, O'Neil, McGinn, Hoar, and a number of lesser lights like Vittoe, J. Mathews, J. Daly, Conley, Fauntleroy, J. McCarthy and others. Bullman is under contract to Belmont, Buchanan rides for Vanderbilt, Burns for Whitney, Redfern for Pepper, Mounce for Belmont, Spencer for Keene and J. Woods for Schorr. Several of the others are under contract to ride in France, England and Austria.

"Boston Jock" McDonald has written to Mr. J. R. Keene to announce the safe arrival in England of Conroy and his companions who left on December 7. Not an English newspaper appears to know anything of the shipment or arrival of those horses, or its probable bearing upon the English racing season. No one as yet can name the best four-year-old upon the English turf, and no one here actually knows that Conroy was not the best of the same age in this country. At any rate, he has done something that no other of his age has ever yet done—in winning the Brooklyn Handicap—and if he is as good in England as he was here during the Morris Park and Gravesend spring meetings, the Derby and St. Leger winners will know a worthy foe when he tackles them.—Daily America.

"This should be a grand year on the turf," said C. J. Enright some days ago, to a Cincinnati press representative. "There will be plenty of occupation for horses of all classes, east and west, and an unprecedented amount of money will be hung up to race for." Mr. Enright said that the crop of yearlings at Elmendorf is the best ever produced at the great farm. There are about 100 of them, and they are by various sires—Order, Hamburg, Juvenal, Salvator, Shapfel and others—out of as grand a band of mares as are to be found in any collection in the country. They will be sent to the sale ring in New York in June. However, Mr. Haggin may keep some of them for racing purposes. This has not been definitely decided.

The New York Sun of January, 6 speaking about the prospects of this year's Brooklyn Handicap, has this to say: "The publication of the Brooklyn Handicap entries yesterday provided much food for discussion among turfmen who usually spend Sundays in the Broadway hotels. The consensus of opinion seemed to be that a finer lot of thoroughbreds could not have been slated to take part in this classic event and that unless something unforeseen should occur an illustrious field of a higher quality than usual would go to the post. There was some regret expressed that Mr. J. B. Haggin was not represented at all, [his crack colt Watercolor having been all along regarded as a sure starter, especially in view of his meritorious performances as a three-year-old. Then again turfmen showed much disappointment over the fact that the Messrs. Keene had seen fit to send last year's sensational Brooklyn winner, Conroy, to England, instead of retaining him here for another try at the big stake in question.]

"The fact that the Keenes have sent in only one entry, Port Royal, which as a two-year-old was a good deal of a failure, is further proof that they have decided to let down a bit in their turf campaign here in order to be able to devote more time to the exploitation of their decidedly strong stable over in England. Had Commando remained sound he would probably now be the Keene's representative in the Brooklyn Handicap, with a royal chance to win, but his breakdown, together with the lameness of Conroy, which has made the latter a doubtful proposition, so undermined the Keene stable here that its apparent weakness is not hard to understand. Last season the Keenes had no good two-year-olds, while in the previous campaign they were surfeited with victorious material, including Cap and Bells, Tommy Atkins, Commando and Olympia. Just what the Keene two-year-olds will amount to this year remains to be seen, but nobody expects them to reach the standard set by the string of 1900."

An epidemic of grip has been raging through W. C. Whitney's stables at Wheatley Hills, L. I. King Hanover, Metalbert, fourteen yearlings and a couple of two-year-olds are at present suffering from the attack. Dr. Shepherd, the well known veterinary of Sheephead Bay, is in charge of the animals, several of which are in danger. Blue Girl, the noted Sir Dixon filly, has just recovered from the grip, while Yankee and Goldsmith, which were turned out to rough it some time ago, have so far escaped. The grip brought with it pneumonia and spread with such rapidity that it was impossible to check it.

"The change in the management of the Latonia Jockey Club and the return to it of the people and the spirit that originally made it a standard of high class racing, has determined Mr. Julius Fleischmann to race again at the Cincinnati track and to give it his support in every way," says the Turf, Field and Farm. The election of Mr. Valle Reyburn, of St. Louis, as a member of the Western Jockey Club is a step distinctly in the right direction. That such men as Mr. Fleischmann and Mr. Reyburn are allying themselves with the sport is an evidence of its advancement, and portends that other equally prominent and equally useful men will also lend it their support. With the complete and peaceful reign of the Western Jockey Club in its territory, under the new influence operating it, there should begin to be talk again about renewing full reciprocal relations once more between the east and the west, including in its scope even California, and reaching as far in the future possibly as a National Jockey Club.

"Wishard got a good horse when he got Runnels," said Bob McMillan recently to a Cincinnati reporter, "but I would rather have McChesney at $15,000 than Runnels at $13,000. I have always believed that McChesney is the better of the two, and I will never change that opinion until I see him defeated by Runnels. I expect that the pair will hook up often enough this year to settle any argument on that score. If McChesney had been the property of Sam Hildreth at the time Tom Hayes made his challenge for a match last summer, the chances are that he would have got a bet. There is no sort of a route that McChesney can't travel over and travel fast. He is a weight carrier as well, and he will give any three-year-old that stacks up against him a hard game.

Lucien Lyne, the clever light-weight jockey, may be with one of the most powerful stables in the west next season. John W. Schorr, who is in quest of a promising light-weight, has made overtures, it is reported, to little Lyne to ride for him the coming season. Mr. Schorr says he will have at the beginning of this season thirty-eight horses, twenty-two of which are two-year-olds and that he feels it is imperative that he get at least one bright, honest boy who has at least a fair knowledge of the riding art to help out J. Woods. He believes that little Lyne will come more nearly filling the bill than any one else in sight and has laid the matter before him.

August Belmont, accompanied by his three sons and Mr. and Mrs. Kennedy, of Hempstead, L. I., stopped off at Lexington several days ago on his way from Florida. The party went straight out to Mr. Belmont's Nursery Stud, about three miles from this city, on the Georgetown pike. While there Mr. Belmont made a thorough inspection of his young thoroughbreds and expressed satisfaction at their condition and appearance.

Winner—Ch. c, by Donald A.—Missouri.

Went to post at 2:15. At post 1 minute. Start straggling. Won handily; second driving. Dr. Scharff beat the gate, but permitted John Peters to show the way on sufferance to the stretch, where he was forced to bump his way through. He came through the stretch very strongly, ran in improved form and was probably best. The Weaver showed much speed and stamina and would have been closer up but for a wide stretch turn. He will probably beat this kind later on. Prestano is in fine form and was right there throughout. John Peters showed brilliant speed, but failed right at the end. Our Pride closed a gap and will do to watch. Sol Lichtenstein, off very badly, ran on the extreme outside, made up a lot of ground and finished easing up.

Scratched—28823 El Chihuahua, 112; 30087 San Lution, 100.

Overweights—The Weaver, 1 pound.

Winner—Ch. g, by Duke of Norfolk—Carmen.

Went to post at 2:39. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second the same. Mattier, on Duke of York, bided his time and caught Finch and Sam Green tiring and got up in the last stride. Finch was poorly ridden and lost much ground on the first turn. Had his superior turn of speed been husbanded the least bit, he could not have lost and was much the best. Sam Green showed much speed in chasing a horse like Finch. The others were hopelessly outrun and far outclassed apparently.

Overweights—Rosalbra, 5 pounds.
Duke of York, show, 2 to 5. Finch, show, 2 to 5. Sam Green, show, 4 to 5.

Winner—B. c, by Orsini—Moonlit.

Went to post at 3:10. At post 1 minute. Start straggling. Won easily; second driving. Orfeo was given a lucky start and strong handling and was going away at the end strongly. He is a fine looker and should improve. Thaddeus, off poorly, made a wide stretch turn, but closed a big gap in the stretch. He finished fast and was probably best. Venecia broke running, showed much speed and stayed well. Tom Mitchell got off poorly. Jennie McGowan is probably best in mud. High Chancellor is a grand looker, highly tried and the same can be said of Arabo.

Overweights—Temprano, 2 pounds.
Orfeo, show, 3 to 1. Thaddeus, show, 1 to 6. Venecia, show, 2 to 1.

Winner—Ch. m, by King Faustus—Daughter McGinnis.

Went to post at 3:33. At post 2 minutes. Start fair. Won driving; second easily. Sea Queen, the medium of a big coup, beat the gate, was carefully nursed to the stretch, finished with a rush right at the end and was very lucky throughout. Maresa showed a great turn of speed and appeared to be a sure winner almost throughout but faltered unexpectedly right at the end. School for Scandal got off badly and made up much ground in the first half but tired badly at the end and did not run her race. The Hoodoo and February both went well throughout. Orleans was under a drive from the start and may have been affected by her recent severe races. Our Lizzie ran poorly. Remora is a good looker.

Overweights—Sea Queen, 2 pounds; Maresa, 3.
Sea Queen, show, 3 to 5. Maresa, show, 4 to 5. School for Scandal, show, out.

Winner--B. c. by Star Ruby--Pearl V.
Went to post at 3:55. At post 6 minutes. Start fair. Won easily; second driving. Lapidus is marvelously quick on his feet, recovered from a sideways start, set an even pace and, being a tremendously fast rater, had the race in hand throughout. Water Scratch made up a lot of ground very gamely under a hard drive through the last half and ran a superior class race. Magi, away running, fell in behind the pacemaker and was going well in hand to the far turn, where she began to flag, although responding gamely to punishment at the end. Royalty quit unaccountably in the last quarter after looming up prominently on the stretch turn. Montana Peeress got off very badly and was outclassed.
Lapidus, show, 1 to 3. Water Scratch, show, out. Magi, show, out.

Winner--Ch. g. by Red Iron--Lilly Wright.
Went to post at 4:23. At post 3 minutes. Start straggling. Won driving; second handily. Diomed was nearly left, but cleverly trailed through the first quarter, gradually improving his position throughout, finished strongly and was easily best and is the most improved horse in training here. Bragg showed fine speed and stayed remarkably well in the final drive. Artilla shuffled back at the start and was under pressure almost from the start and was closing up very strongly at the end. Sunello, best on a sloppy track, showed the way on suzerainty for the first half. Imperious is of little account except in mud.
Diomed, show, 2 to 5. Bragg, show, 1 to 2. Artilla, show, 2 to 5.

Winner--Ch. g. by Bob Miles--Punchy.
Went to post at 1:59. At post 9 minutes. Start poor. Won driving; second easily. Free Coinage finished fast, caught Little Jack Horner tiring in the run home and won in the final stride. Little Jack Horner was off running, while the others were all tangled up, and fully ran his race. Albula finished fast and strongly and was gaining on the leaders at the end. Myrtle Van and Hopedale ran well for a half. The latter was probably short and the race should improve him. Fickle Saint ran well and will do to watch.
Scratched--29976 Wallenstein, 98.
Overweights--Free Coinage, 2 pounds; Albula, 1; Alpaca, 1 1/2.

Winner--B. c. by Top Gallant--Sallie Hagen.
Went to post at 2:35. At post 9 minutes. Start poor. Won easily; second the same. O'Hagen was best and came away without much of an effort in the run home. Cast Iron ran in much improved form under a good ride. Quixada finished well and caught Crescent City tiring and beat him out in the last stride. Throw out Amigari's race. She was off tangled up and was made too much use of to get to the front and Cochran's finish was a weak one.
Overweights--Quixada, 1 pound; Crescent City, 2; Lady Like, 2 1/2.

Winner--B. h. by Inverness--Virgin.
Went to post at 3:08. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second the same. Winkfield put up a very strong finish on Ecome. It was the ride that made the latter win although the horse ran a good race. Miss Soak came with a rush through the stretch and was catching the leaders fast. She would have won in another stride. Add ran in improved form but was hampered all through the last furlong, being in close quarters next to the inside rail. Moroni set the pace on suzerainty. Arak showed no high speed whatever and ran a bad race. Maple ran well. Jessie Jarboe can do better.
Scratched--29989 Sarilla, 99; 30065 Shut Up, 91; 30063 Mattie Bazar, 91.
Overweights--Add, 1 pound; Maple, 2 1/2; Jessie Jarboe, 3.

Went to post at 3:45. At post 11 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second the same. Nitrate ran a fine race and was splendidly handled. He was driving to the limit all through the last furlong and just managed to last long enough to stall off W. B. Gates and Azim. W. B. Gates ran to his best form and finished stoutly. Azim was wearing the leaders down and would have won in a couple more strides. Major Mansir tired and quit after closing a big gap. Petit Maitre and Woodtrice both tired. The latter set the early pace on suzerainty.

Went to post at 4:23. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Johnny McCartney showed sudden improvement and great speed, ran a fine race and came away in the stretch with great ease when called on. Reseda cut the corner at the stretch turn closely and was under a hard drive all through the last furlong to stall off Andes. The latter was the victim of a bad ride. Coburn floundered all over the saddle when it came to a finish. Van Hoorebeke ran well to the stretch, then quit badly.

Winner--B. g. by King Alfonso--Joppa.
Went to post at 4:53. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Admetus ran a surprisingly good race, was the best ridden and had things all his own way through the last half. Hayden took Warranted back in the first part of the race and was cut off at the turn into the backstretch when he was about to make his run. Meggs ran to his best form, but tired in the stretch run. Lady Chorister showed the most early speed, but found the route too long. The time ties the record made by Hindocraft in 1889.
Scratched--30099 Uncle Tom, 91.
Overweights--Jackanapes, 2 1/2 pounds.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

The Commoner, recently purchased to head the Belle Meade stud, is wintering well. He looks high in flesh. The young sire will not be bred to outside mares. Should General Jackson have desired to allow outside mares, the horse could have paid for himself the coming season. On all sides General Jackson was besieged for bookings, but all were turned down.

Thomas Hales, Australia's most noted jockey, died recently of congestion of the lungs. He was born in 1847 and during his career on the turf he rode the winners of most of the great races in the two principal colonies. Between the years 1872 and 1894, when Hales retired, he rode 496 winners, 332 seconds and 195 thirds out of 1,678 mounts, the value of the stakes won by the horses ridden by him amounting to £168,340.

The Supreme Court of Westchester County has invalidated the sale of the Empire City race track at Yonkers, N. Y., to Frank Farrell on behalf of the widow of William H. Clark. It is said that offers varying from $300,000 to $400,000 were for some unknown reason turned down. The plant was recently sold to Farrell for $218,000.

The tip comes from St. Louis that starter A. B. Dade, who handled the flag so successfully at Delmar and the Fair Grounds last year, will do all the starting in the Mound City this year. It is said that he will very shortly sign contracts for the work at the three tracks.

"Silver Bill" Riley is having success on the block at Oakland. It's coming to him in bunches. The breaks that he had with the trotters last year would have been so discouraging to an ordinary man that he would have despised the appearance of chalk and figures.

At the next June sales of yearlings in New York General Jackson will have thirty-six head, twenty colts and sixteen fillies. They are all bred in the purple, being by the sires on the Belle Meade farm and out of matrons that have made turf history.

"Counsellor Bill" Brien, the turfman and trainer, lately back from the Klondyke, is now at Lexington, Ky., getting together a string of youngsters which he intends to race the coming year.

PEDIGREE BLANKS.

On linen paper, artistically edged in colors, ruled and arranged for six generations of sires and dams of individuals and their ancestors. Ten cents each, $1.00 per dozen, $3.50 per hundred. No owner of a stallion should be without a supply.
